

hey friends and neighbors --

I HOPE you got out the last couple of days into that BEAUTIFUL winter weather we've been having. Our odora daphne blossoms fill the air with an INTOXICATING aroma. When one smells that, one knows spring is on the way, and everything is right with the world ☺.

Have you been to the new FOOD CART STATION at the corner of 145th AV and Sunnyside RD? It's a FUN place for a HUGE variety of carts in which to choose. AND they have a warm indoors with coffee and beer for sale. More information below.

PLEASE go to your facebook page and LIKE the Estacada Grand Floral Parade Floats...that way you'll be able to keep up on the float's progress and see how you can help make this FABULOUS float, which will represent Estacada to the WORLD in Portland's Grand Floral Parade in June.

Does anyone happen to have a 16-cu.ft. car-top cargo box that's just taking up room and collecting dust around your house? The one we're looking for has to be less than 60 inches long, with a side opening. If so, let's talk...either email me (gloria) back at polzin2@hevanet.com; or phone 503.630.5688.

A WARM WELCOME to all the new DAWG readers this week. It's GREAT to have you join us. If there are new people in the neighborhood, and they'd like to know "all the cool and groovy" things that are happening, just have them send an email to: fun4ever50@gmail, and I'll add them to the list....

Be sure to peruse the DAWG from top to bottom, so you don't miss anything - I add new listings throughout the document...

WELCOME to all the new LUCKY DAWG eNEWS readers.

For those of you reading the DAWG each week, I THANK YOU.....

See you around town.....Be good to yourself.....

gloria ☺.

She Fled Her Apartment In 1939, And Never Returned. Now They're Opening It For The Very First Time...

A View Of The Past!

anothermag.com

In The Late 1930s, an apartment located in Paris was abandoned. Recently, it was rediscovered. Inside it housed several amazing items.

The Reason It Was Abandoned.

sentsmemory.wordpress.com

When word got out that German soldiers were marching towards Paris, young Madame de Florian locked the apartment away and fled to the free zone.

A Discovery After Death.

Madame de Florian continued to pay the rent on her apartment until her death, which was in 2010. Her heirs learned about the apartment in her will and decided to hire an auctioneer to survey the interior items. They were a little nervous until they finally got the door open and saw a wondrous sight!

Untouched Throughout Time!

gallerhip.com

It was the perfect example of a luxury apartment in the 1900s. Everything was untouched from the paintings to the dining room furniture and dishes.

Stuck In Time!

1909venilo.net

The vanity still had perfumes and makeup waiting to be used by an owner who never returned.

Originals!

The vanity itself is also gorgeous, a pinnacle of 1900s design.

Some original Disney characters Mickey Mouse and Porky Pig were also found.

A Beautiful Woman!

thiswritelife.wordpress.com

Also found in the apartment was a portrait of a woman in a pink dress. The woman happened to be the previous tenant of the apartment. She was Mathe de Florian, Madame de Florian's grandmother!

A Masterpiece!

the-athenaeum.org

It was concluded the artist of the piece was Italian, Giovanni Boldini. Mathe was an actress and a woman in high society. She had many love letters from politicians and even Boldini himself. The piece was auctioned for over 3 million dollars after its discovery.

Questions Unanswered

It was understandable why Madame de Florian fled the apartment over fears of Nazi occupation. But, why had she not returned to the apartment and still pay the rent for so many years? Though it is very good she did not disturb this apartment, what a beautiful heirloom to have in the family. The history that fills the space is incredible!

Chamber NEWS...

Estacada Chamber Lunch Meeting on Thursday, Feb. 18th...

If you own or run a business you probably have goals you would like to accomplish. But have you ever felt like the daily noise stops you from pulling those goals over the finish line? A good business plan can help you keep on track. It doesn't have to be long or complicated. It simply needs to work for you.

The next Chamber luncheon will be on Thursday, February 18 from noon to around 1:30 pm. The presenter is Bennett Johnson from Writing Solutions and the subject is, "How to Develop User Friendly Business Plans." We will learn how to set meaningful and achievable goals, how to create business plans that will not just sit on a shelf, and how to develop a simple financial forecast. A good time will be had by all!

Chamber luncheons are held at City Hall on the third Thursday of each month. This month Fire and Knives will provide lunch for only $8 per person. The programs are free to Chamber members and are only $15 for non-members. However, first time, non-member attendees are guests of the Chamber.

Please RSVP by responding to this email or calling the Chamber office at 503-630-3483. Please bring exact change if you are having lunch, and if you RSVP and then have a change of plans, please let us know ahead of time so we can cancel your lunch. Thanks and look forward to hearing from you.

CHECK OUT THIS WEATHER!! Not much new this week. If you have specials or postings you would like included in this bulletin or on the Chamber Facebook page, please let us know. This bulletin reaches more than 200 readers each week. Other Chambers charge for e-blasts and Facebook postings. Your Chamber does not. It is included in your membership.

COMPLIMENTARY BREAKFAST Grace Place is holding a "We love our Referral Partners" breakfast on Tuesday, February 09, 2016 from 7:30 –9:00 am. Please see attached flyer for details.

BLOOD PRESSURE CHECKS Providence Willamette Medical Center is providing free blood pressure checks on the third Thursday of every month, from 11:00 am until 2 pm at Providence Willamette Falls Medical Center, 1500 Division Street, Oregon City. They will give you a card to record your pressure each time you have it measured so you can track it.

NEXT CHAMBER LUNCHEON: Will take place on Thursday, February 18th at City Hall, noon to 1:30, and will feature Bennett Johnson from Writing Solutions. Bennett will walk us through the steps of how to write effective and user friendly business plans, for your business or even your life. Lunch will be provided by Fire and Knives for $8.00 per person. Please bring exact change. RSVP by calling the Chamber office or simply responding to this email. (Oh, and if you RSVP but then later have to cancel please give us a couple of days notice so we can cancel your lunch. Otherwise the Chamber has to cover the cost.)

BENEFIT CONCERT for and at Estacada Community Center: Tribute to John Denver with John Hoover and the Mighty Quinns. Sunday, Feb. 14, 2016, 1-3:30 pm. Admission by donation at the door. John Hoover's website: www.johnhoovermusic.com. They are hoping for a full house!

FIRE AND KNIVES VALENTINES DAY SPECIAL On Valentine's Day Feb. 14 Fire and Knives will be hosting a Prime Rib dinner. With sautéed seasonal veg in garlic fresh herb white wine butter, and loaded baked potato with melted cheese Applewood smoked bacon sour cream and chives. It will be $14 per person.

ESTACADA BIGGEST LOSER CHALLENGE: The Start date has changed to Feb. 29th. Teams of four will compete to be the community Biggest Losers. You can find out more by going to the link below. Entry for each team is $100 or $25 per person. There will be lots of on line support and tips on how to be a more healthy and well YOU! You can sign up now by going to www.biggestlosercommunity.com. If you are interested in this opportunity please email Chamber board member, Paulina Menchaca, at pmenchaca@choicesins.com

UPCOMING CHAMBER LUNCH PROGRAMS: March: Senator Alan Olsen will brief us on the results of the 2016 legislative session. April: How to create a marketing plan and get the most out of social media. Lunches are the third Thursday of every month at City Hall, noon to 1:30. Have an idea for a lunch program. Please email us!

LAST WEEK FOR PROPOSALS: TOURISM COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM -Estacada Chamber of Commerce will begin accepting proposals and applications for Community Partnership Program (CPP) from January 4, 2016 through February 12, 2016. Hard copy proposals must arrive at the Chamber office, which is located in City Hall, before 3 pm on February 12.

The Community Partnership Program (CPP) provides funding for tourism-related projects in local communities that have the ability to 1) increase overnight stays in lodging facilities within Clackamas County, 2) bring visitors into your community from more than 50 miles away to recreate, shop, dine or take in the arts, cultural or historic offerings, and/or 3) entice visitors to linger longer. All proposals must address alignment with these criteria.

Specific information regarding eligibility and proposal requirements is contained in the application packet which is available electronically (recommended) or in hard copy. To receive an electronic copy applicants are asked to email requests to info@estacadachamber.org. Hard copy packets will be available at the Chamber office during open hours (Monday through Thursday, 11 am-3 pm) from January 4, 2016. Proposals will be reviewed by the Estacada Chamber Tourism Committee. Successful proposals will be funded in April, 2016. The Chamber Board and Chamber Tourism Committee are particularly interested in seeing proposals that will have broad base impact, will promote the entire area rather than a single event or business, and are supportive of the recently completed branding effort by the City of Estacada.

CHAMBER COMMITTEES: We still have one board opening, but if that is not your cup of tea please consider serving on a Chamber Committee: Marketing, Government Affairs, Fund Raising and Membership. Time commitment is probably one to two hours a month or less. Please call the Chamber office or reply to this email if interested.

ESTACADA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ON FACEBOOK Please check us out at <https://www.facebook.com/EstacadaChamber>

Don't forget, you can send your News Bulletin or Facebook submissions to info@estacadachamber.org. Facebook graphics need to be jpeg.

If you don't want to receive these emails simply reply and type "unsubscribe" in the subject line.

Happy Valley Food Cart Station - Best in Oregon...

FEBRUARY 2, 2016 BY ADMIN

A new food cart park is all the rage in Happy Valley located just outside of downtown Portland. This new Park is said to be one of the biggest in Oregon featuring 26 unique food cart serving a variety of delicious, tasty treats. With an over 4000 square-foot pavilion as well as a massive awning will be the home of Portland's newest attraction.

25 spots were immediately filled with a 26th spot going to the contest winner of the food cart giveaway. Congratulations to Cindy Lou's for winning the 26th spot! The Happy Valley Station had its grand opening celebration on Saturday, December 5 and by now, most of the food cart owners have worked the kinks out of their preparation and service. They've now had about six weeks to prep and plan, serve and create some of the tastiest dishes in Portland.

Locale and Set Up

Located at 13551 SE. 145th Ave. in Happy Valley just off of SE. Sunnyside Rd., the Happy Valley Station is open seven days a week starting at 10:00 AM until 8:00 PM. Just a few of the food carts are open at 7:00 AM and the covered, heated 150-seat dining pavilion also opens at 7 AM. The Pavilion offers picnic benches, tables, parking and restrooms. The food carts are positioned horseshoe style around three sides of the Pavilion, primarily outside under a covered awning with three carts on the inside. There are 6 big screen TVs and a kid's play area. The idea is to purchase food outside and come inside to eat it.

Tasty Bites

Some of Portland's best eateries are showcased at the station including Cajun Life, Leid Back Hawaiian, E-San Thai and the 30 Taps beer cart with literally 30 different beers on tap ready to go and 15 ciders. Future plans may involved "tap takeovers" and guest brewers.

There's something for everyone a Happy Valley including Chinese food, Cajun cooking, chicken wings, tamales, coffee and gelato and even I Candy, a food car completely dedicated to candy. Lots of cool choices! You can enjoy Wasabi Sushi, seafood, and Mama's Mini Donuts.

Rave Reviews

Happy Valley Station already has over 49 reviews on Yelp their first month in business.

“Like all Portlanders, I love me some food carts, so much so than when we went to Hawaii and found some there, we pretty much only ate there. Most food carts all share the same characteristics, they’re known for their food and not for their fine dining ambiance. Something that I’d never expect, you know what you’re getting with food carts, we are all okay with this.”

*When I walked into the HVS, I was blown away by the fact that it brought together not only great selections for food carts but it also paired it with an amazing seated experience for after you picked up your orders. I’m used to more of the *find any place you can find to perch, even if it’s not meant for perching* sort of situation, or I’m lucky, hunger game sprinting to a wobbly plastic picnic table. I’ve seen some food cart pods stepping it up lately but not to this scale.”*

This is how Happy Valley does food carts. Great set up!

The location has a rich back story. The developer originally purchased the land in 2010, fed up with local food options (shocking for Portland) and wanted to offer good food, close to home without going to Portland. It was originally zoned office so owner Valerie Hunter changed that to Commercial under a specialty restaurant.

Happy Valley Station is 30 minutes or 15 miles from downtown Portland. 13551 SE 145th Ave in Happy Valley.

ANTFARM PAINT NIGHT...

Rose City Hot Club
Friday, February 5th 6pm
Refreshments and an activity for the kids!

The Rose City Hot Club has been performing swingin' Gypsy Jazz in the Northwest since 2005. Always dance-able, never too loud and played on acoustic instruments, Gypsy Jazz offers melodic interpretations of American swing tunes from the 1930's and 40's as well as European favorites. "Hot Club" style music refers to "Le Jazz Hot" popularized in the Paris night clubs by Django Reinhardt and Stephane Grappelli's band, Quintette du Hot Club de France, beginning in 1934. The Rose City Hot Club has performed at Timberline Lodge, the Columbia Gorge Hotel and at many wedding celebrations and other private and public events. We're excited to be performing again in Sandy, Oregon.

Miss Monica's Favorite Story Time Books For Toddlers

- My Car by Byron Barton - I can recommend ANY book by Byron Barton. I love this book in particular because it has a funny twist at the end and it has a couple of big words that parents can point out to the child.
- Meow And The Little Chairs by Sebastian Braun
- Hurry! Hurry! by Eve Bunting
- Cat's Colors By Jane Cabrera. I love everything written and illustrated by Cabrera. Her fun illustrations and bright colors draw the little ones in.
- From Head To Toe by Eric Carle
- Maisy Dresses Up. By Lucy Cousins. This is a series and toddlers love them all!
- Orange, Pear, Apple, Bear. By Emily Gravett
- Kevin Henkes. I am kind of obsessed with Kevin Henkes' illustrations in a few of his picture books. Really wonderful, simple stories, too. These are three of my all-time favorite story time books:
  - A Good Day, Old Bear, Kitten's First Full Moon
  - Spot Goes To The Park. by Eric Hill. (those lift-the-flap books are a big hit. Make sure you are careful or the flaps get destroyed).
  - Clip-Clap by Nicola Smee
  - Chicky Chicky Chook Chook by Cathy MacLennan. This one is really fun to read - with lots of fun rhymes.

¿Quieres una oportunidad para practicar su inglés? Estas invitado a un nuevo grupo llamado INTERCAMBIO

Cada Jueves 7:00-8:30 de la tarde
En la Biblioteca de Sandy
Comienzo el 14 de Enero

Se rá un grupo de conversación muy casual y divertido donde hablamos, compartimos canciones, jugamos juegos, compartamos bocadillos, etcetera en inglés y español. Te invitamos a traer a sus hijos. Es completamente gratis.

Are you interested in improving your Spanish? Intercambio is a weekly group at the Sandy Public Library. You are invited to come and practice your Spanish, while helping native Spanish speakers practice their English, in a casual, friendly setting. Teen Advisory Board

Join the TAB to get involved and help plan our teen programs! TAB meetings are the 2nd Wednesday and 4th Friday of each month at 4pm in the Community Room of the Sandy Library. Come hang out, eat pizza, and share your ideas with the library. It looks great on your resume or college application.

Check-In Circle
Sandy Library Community room
FIRST SUNDAY of each month @ 3:30pm

The inaugural Check-In Circle was so popular in December, we are keeping it!
The Circle (or council) is an ancient form that has been gathering us into respectful conversation for thousands of years in many cultures around the world. This provides a shift from informal socializing or opinionated discussion into a receptive attitude of thoughtful speaking.

4 Book groups; Men, Women, Mystery & Hoodland

Visit the Library website or like the City of Sandy on Facebook to see what books the book groups are reading next. Book Groups meet at the Sandy Library unless otherwise noted.

- Men's Group usually meets the first Monday of each month at 7pm: February 8th (Due to a conflict of schedule, the Men's group will be held at Sandy Senior Center, upstairs in the art room.)
- Women's Group meets on the second Thursday of each month at 7pm: February 14th
- Mystery Group Meets at the Sandy Senior Center on the 4th Thursday of each Month at 2pm: February 28th
- Hoodland Book Group
The group will meet on Wednesday, February 20, at 6:30p.m. East of the Mountains by David Guterson will be discussed. If you are interested in joining the group, contact the library at 503-622-3460 or email hoodlandlibrary@ci.sandy.or.us

The Compleat Works of Wilm Shkspr (Abridged)

by Jess Borgeson, Andam Long, and Daniel Singer

Jim Lamproe, Molly Reel, and Tabitha Souders perform Shakespeare's Comedies

Feel the need to brush up your Shakespeare? No? Well, what about enjoying an evening with Willy and walking away able to discuss him with anyone? If all this has not grabbed your attention, how about a rip-snorting evening of fun??

This marvelous company of six actors wisks you through Romeo & Juliet, Titus Andronicus, Antony &

Cleopatra, Macbeth, Julius Caesar, Hamlet– and all the comedies - all 37 plays in 87 minutes. You will be a convert.

See the history of England’s kings as a football game, Titus Andronicus as a cooking show, and Macbeth with authentic Scottish accents, all during Act One. Act Two is the funniest, most energetic and comic production of Hamlet you are ever likely to see. There is some audience participation as well so don’t sit in the front row unless you are willing.

The play is directed by Anita Sorel and the cast includes Jennifer Souders, Jim Lamproe, Brick Andrews, Tabitha Souders, George Farquhar, Molly Reel.

Tickets are available on line at www.sandyactorstheatre.org and at the door!

Too Much, Too Much, Too Many

By Meghan Kennedy
Directed by Anita Sorel

Monday, Feb. 15, 2016
7 PM

The dramedy tells the story of Rose who, after the death of her husband, locks herself in her bedroom for the better part of a year, leaving her daughter Emma to take care of her through the closed door. When the church sends a pastor to try to coax Rose out of her room, he finds out that Rose isn’t the only person in the house using barriers to hide her true feelings.

Anita did this play at Clackamas Rep and fell in love with it. For her it is about the walls we build to protect our hearts to survive, and deciding when it's time to break them down. The cast includes: Jonica Tabler, Atthew Rathbun, Jennifer Souder, Doug Holtry and Anita Sorel as narrator.

Family Constellations:

a deep, dynamic, experiential exploration of the forces of resilience, vitality and love.

You:

in search of fresh perspectives on your family-of-origin, current relationships, career, health, parenting, or other central life questions, in search of ways to move forward.

Suzi:

a long-time facilitator, teacher and writer who has worked with hundreds of clients and students, using this potent life-changing approach

We:

come together in a temporary community to represent in each others' Constellations so that whatever is keeping us hindered, confused, burdened can be moved out of our body-mind and experienced from a greater distance. Once a fuller systemic context is revealed, the powerful resources that reside behind, around, and inside us can be accessed - and new hope, creativity and self-love can be embodied. Love and Balance is Restored.

Everyone will have the opportunity to receive from every piece of work. No experience necessary - all are welcome.

Clackamas Repertory Theatre announces 2016 season...

You asked; we demurred. You inquired; we said: “wait just a little longer.”

Well, the time has finally arrived and we are ready to announce our 12th season:

One Slight Hitch
a new comedy by Lewis Black
June 30 – July 24

The Music Man
Aug. 4 – 28

Steel Magnolias
Sept. 8 – Oct. 2

Flex tickets available early

We are elated about our summer lineup, and if you are as excited as we are, become a flex-pass subscriber and save up to 26 percent!

Season ticket prices:

Adults: $75
Seniors (67+): $72
Youth (25-): $30

If you were to purchase individual tickets to all three shows, it would cost $96 for adults, $90 for seniors and $42 for youth!

Want to subscribe but don't know what dates will work best with your schedule? No problem! Although our regular season tickets go on sale Feb. 15, our flex-passes — where you get the same fabulous season discount, but select show dates later — will be available Jan. 20!

New ticketing system unveiled!

Next time you purchase tickets through our site, you'll notice a change. We have a new, simpler ticketing system. NO MORE PASSWORDS! You only need to remember your name and email address. However, if you encounter trouble with the new system, please call Cyndy at 503-594-3915.

Have technical difficulties? You can reach Cyndy at her desk between 1 and 5 p.m., Wednesday through Friday. She also promises to check messages and return calls Monday and Tuesday afternoon. She will likely be at her desk then too, but don't hold her to that.

Of course, if you can't seem to remember your name or email, please don't call her ... call your doctor.

Were you a subscriber last year?

Last year's season subscribers should have received a code by email* to select their favorite dates and seats for next season before everyone else. But act quickly, because regular season ticket sales open to the public Feb. 15. Beware the ides of ... February?

* 2015 subscribers: if you did not receive a code by email, please call Cyndy at 503-594-3915.

Purchase Soon

"Wing It" flies back for a heartwarming show Feb. 13

Our love birds (and bees) return to CRT in "Wing It: A Storybook Love Story." This special Valentine's performance will play Feb. 13 at 10:30 a.m. Bring your little loved ones and celebrate Valentine's Day in style.

Tickets available at the door for $5; no reserved seats.

Gala tickets are going fast!

Don't miss the fun on March 19. We have great food, curated wines, and unique silent and live auction packages. You will also see Jayson Shanafelt experience "The Actor's Nightmare," written by Christopher Durang, as well as enjoy a revue of great tunes from "The Music Man." The cost is only a mere $60.

OREGON CITY – The Clackamas Repertory Theatre continues its second season of interactive shows for children with a Valentine's Day-themed performance on Feb. 13 in the Osterman Theatre on the Clackamas Community College Campus in Oregon City.

“Wing It: A Storybook Love Story” is loosely based on “The Princess Bride.” In this installment, the forest friends go on a journey to find their true loves. They are joined by the mischievous, troublemaking cats, Spit and Spat, played by Dennis Kelly and Clackamas Rep company member Jayne Stevens, who will undoubtedly try to disrupt the journey. And Jazz the squirrel, played by Clackamas Rep favorite James Sharinghousen, will be back. The children in the audience will have fun helping the animals find their way in spite of the devious cats. As always, there will be singing, dancing and a chance for children to come up to the stage for their moment in the spotlight.

“Wing It” is geared toward children 2-10 years old, but is fun for all ages. It is developed and directed by Travis Nodurft, Clackamas Rep company member, professional clown and Oregon City sixth-grade teacher.

Additional shows are scheduled for April 9 and May 7. All performances begin at 10:30 a.m. and take place in the Niemeyer Center on the campus of Clackamas Community College, 19600 Molalla Ave. Admission is $5 at the door. There is no reserved seating.

For more information, visit clackamasrep.org or call 503-594-6047.

CCC presents “The Shadow Testament”...

OREGON CITY – Clackamas Community College presents English instructor Sue Mach’s powerful and moving play “The Shadow Testament” as the Theatre Arts Department’s winter term mainstage production.

Loosely based on true story, the play takes place in Corvallis and Seattle during the turn of the century. The story focuses on Jane, a young woman who must come to terms with a crime she committed in the name of love and God. As she sits in her asylum room, Jane revisits the past as she experiences a night of visions, dreams and conversations with haunting ghosts.

For her third play, “The Shadow Testament,” Mach received a Women Writers Fellowship from Literary Arts Inc. This piece has been workshopped by Artists Repertory Theatre in Portland, Contemporary Theatre in Seattle, Boston Playwrights’ Theatre and JAW/West. It was produced by Portland World Theatre as part of the Fertile Ground Festival.

Featuring CCC students under the direction of Artistic Director James Eikrem, scenic and lighting design by Chris Whitten, and costumes by Alva Bradford, “The Shadow Testament” brings to light a part of Oregon history that is still difficult to discuss.

“I was fascinated by the story of the Holy Rollers and found it particularly interesting that Esther (the main character in the play) never really got to tell her side of the story,” Mach said. “I wanted to give her a voice, to let her determine if she was a good person or a bad person, to let her figure out if what she did was right or wrong.” Performances are Feb. 25 through March 6, Thursday through Saturday at 7:30 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m., with a “pay what you can” performance on Friday, March 4, at 10 a.m. Tickets are $11 for adults, $9 for seniors, $5 online or “pay what you can at the box office” for students. This play contains brief nudity, adult content and gun violence.

There will be two “talk-back” panel discussions after the March 4 and 5 performances. Audience members will have the opportunity to interact with the cast members, Eikrem, Mach and Theresa McCracken, who is the author of “Holy Rollers” (a book about the actual events).

For ticket information and reservations, visit clackamas.edu/theatre or call 503-594-3153.

OREGON CITY – “Kerplunk,” an exhibition of recent work by Richard Keely, opens Feb. 18 in the Alexander Gallery at CCC and runs through March 18. An artist’s reception will be held Thursday, Feb. 18, from noon to 1:30 p.m. The artist will speak about his work at 1 p.m.

The exhibition showcases sculptural works made from a variety of media, including casting materials and found objects. Keely makes sculpture through process and material exploration. While deliberate and meticulous, his process is dependent on the discovery and surprises that can make the familiar mysterious and fresh.

Keely is a visual artist living and working in San Diego, Calif. He received a Master of Fine Arts from San Diego State University and a Bachelor of Arts from California State University. He is currently an associate professor of Art at San Diego State University. His work has been avidly shown throughout the United States and Canada.

The Alexander Gallery is located in the Niemeyer Center at Clackamas Community College’s Oregon City Campus. The gallery is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., with the exception of campus holidays. Exhibitions are open to the public, and there is no cost to attend. For more information, contact Kate Simmons at 503-594-3032 or kates@clackamas.edu.

Winter Programs at CCC Horticulture Dept...

CCC HORTICULTURE DEPARTMENT OFFERS VARIETY OF WINTER PROGRAMS

News Release from Clackamas Community College

Downloadable file: Greenhouse Lighting and Heating

OREGON CITY -- The Horticulture Department at Clackamas Community College this winter will offer a variety of workshops for home gardeners, as well as classes for professional licensing. A roundup of short courses and workshops during winter term 2016 follows:

- * Fruit Tree Pruning: Saturday, Feb. 6, 9 to 11:50 a.m. at the CCC Home Orchard Society Arboretum. Demonstration and practice of pruning methods appropriate for a variety of fruit trees. Bring pruning tools and appropriate outdoor wear. Fee is $10.
- * Beekeeping School: Saturdays, Feb. 6 and 14, 9 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. in Clairmont, room 118. Beekeeping is popular because of its importance in pollination and honey production. This workshop will prepare new and beginner beekeepers with knowledge, demonstrations and lists of resources. Topics will include basic bee biology, proper equipment, handling of bees, hive pest and disease control, and feeding. Cost is $50.
- * Greenhouse Lighting and Heating: Friday, Feb. 12, 9 to 11:50 a.m. in Clairmont, room 117. Supplemental lighting and heating are two of the most costly greenhouse inputs and selecting the right combination will have a lasting impact on plant health and profitability. Topics include an introduction to types of lighting and heating systems, energy management systems, how to decide what works best for each situation and how to access grants to support energy efficiency. Cost is $30.
- * Irrigation for Small Farms: Tuesdays, Feb. 16 and 23, 8 to 10:30 a.m. in Clairmont, room 118. This workshop will provide a foundation for small-scale farmers to make informed decisions about irrigation systems that efficiently and cost-effectively supply the right amount of water to crops. Topics include understanding water sources, selecting the right irrigation material and developing strategies for maximizing production, while minimizing water and labor use. Cost is $30.
- * Storm Water Management for Landscapers: Thursday, Feb. 18, 8 to 11:50 a.m. in Clairmont, room 127. This workshop focuses on proper design, maintenance and operational considerations for storm water facilities, including rain gardens and swales, to ensure water quality goals. Regulatory, contractor and designer perspectives will be addressed. LCB CEH credits available. Cost is $40.
- * Fruit Tree Grafting - Beginning: Saturday, Feb. 27, 9 to 10:30 a.m. or Saturday, Feb. 27, 10:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. in Clairmont, room 117. Hands-on explanation and practice in whip grafting of fruit trees under the supervision of experienced grafters. Participants will be provided with a rootstock and scion wood. Bring a straight-edged knife. Cost is $15.
- * Fruit Tree Grafting - Intermediate: Saturday, Feb. 27, 12:45 to 2:15 p.m., in Clairmont, room 117. Hands-on practice with advanced grafting methods: cleft, kerf, bark and inarching. Participants will be provided with a rootstock and scion wood. Bring a straight-edged knife. Cost is $15.
- * Hypertufa Trough: Saturday, March 5, 10 to 11:50 a.m. in Clairmont, room 117. Hypertufa containers -- or troughs -- make natural additions to the garden as well as handsome homes for alpine plants on a patio, deck or balcony. These containers can be made in nearly any shape and size. Learn to make one and about the appropriate plants and soils to use. Cost is $35.
- * Japanese-style Pruning: Saturday, March 12, 8 to 11:50 a.m. in Clairmont, room 118. Learn the art of Japanese pruning with Masa Mizuno, a highly respected master of Japanese garden cultivation. This is a hands-on class; bring gloves and pruning tools. Cost is $40.
- * Pesticide Laws and Safety in Spanish: Fridays, Jan. 15 through Feb. 12, 1 to 4:50 p.m. in Clairmont, room 133. Prepare and test for the Oregon Pesticide Laws and Safety exam. Cost is $120.
- * Pesticide Core Training: Friday, Feb. 26, 1 to 4:50 p.m. in Clairmont, room 133. This training qualifies for four CORE recertification credits as required by Oregon Department of Agriculture. Fulfills yearly recertification requirement for private pesticide license holders and can be used toward total needed for public and commercial license requirements. Fee is $40.

There are LOTS of new people moving to our neighborhood. I wish that they ALL could know about the LUCKY DAWG eNEWS. Many have told me that if it wasn't for the DAWG they would have missed an event that interested them. SO...

...I had business cards made. (see above). I plan to distribute them around town to be picked up by those interested. Do you know new people in the neighborhood; or perhaps even some of your friends who want to know what's going on? If you'd like some of these cards, to help inform peeps about all the FUN things happening around here, just let me know; and I'll get some cards to you. My THANKS to Paul Strobel, our own State Farm Insurance guy; Linda Arnett from the Book Nook; Tamera Nielson from Oregon Massage & Lymphedema Clinic; and Michele Kinnemon at our own Estacada Public Library, who are all handing these cards out to all the new Estacada residents they meet... Would you like some LUCKY DAWG eNEWS business cards, to hand out too?

GREAT NEWS -- once again you can read the DAWG online -- for years I was grateful that Dan Skoog posted the DAWG online; and now Jordan Winthrop has graciously "picked up the torch" to do so. So now you can read the LUCKY DAWG eNEWS either as it arrives in your email; or online at EstacadaLocal.com. Find it here <http://estacadalocal.com/news/lucky-dawg-e-news/> always know that if you have local friends and family who'd like to receive this weekly "LUCKY DAWG eNEWS" email, send me their email address and i'll add them to my list -- if this one email once a week has become overwhelming, and a simple "delete" will put your over the edge, let me know and i'll pull your name from this list.....

if you have anything you'd like to put in this weekly newsletter, please email it to me (fun4ever50@gmail.com) BY wednesday at midnight, of any given week; in a "cut and paste form" -- keep in mind that images/pictures are more interesting than just WORDS; -- this email generally goes out on thursdays -- it may or may not "make the cut," so please don't take it personally if it doesn't.....

well kids, that's what i know for now -- go out and meet someone new, do something novel and eat something extraordinary..... :).

aren't we LUCKY DAWGS to be living in estacada, the BEST place on earth?!!!

enjoy one another -- we're all in this together :).....

gloria :).
